

HEAD® to Mt Hutt for the Sunday race Series

Kicking off on the 6th July for four consecutive Sundays in July in the HEAD Sunday Race Series. This is the 3rd year of this Race Series and is growing in popularity each year. With this recent dumping of 25centimetres it sets Mt Hutt up for a great Series. It will consist of two Giant Slaloms and two Slaloms and is open to all levels of skiers. "Sometimes the everyday mountain goer or everyday skier is quite intimidated by skiing around gates or entering a race arena. This Race Series invites all levels of racers to participate and have fun in this very unique experience" said Richard Murphy from Mt Hutt Race and Events. This also can become a family experience for a Sunday outing to Mt Hutt with lots of Fun and Laughs. Its also acts as a great warm up to the Mt Hutt master which takes place early August.

Director of HEADNZ Adrian Farnsworth says "I am waiting with anticipation for this to kick off. It is a fun, satisfying and unique race series to compete in.

HEAD is very proud to be involved with Mt Hutt and these races"

With great prizes to be had for all this is sure to be a blast!! Winter is here Folks Lets get Ski Racing.
